

Describing Our Work

"I work to support and enhance the quality of life for people with disabilities"

"I support people with disabilities to navigate system barriers and "red tape"

"I work to help people with disabilities explore and pursue interests and groups that would enrich life in community."

"I advocate for the rights and freedoms of people with disabilities and empower them to self-advocate for the same rights and freedoms as all Canadian's."

"I am a human rights activist; I work to propel equality and promote the value/contributions of the people I support".

"I work to enhance the physical/emotional safety and well-being of those I support and to promote a life free from abuse and discrimination"

"I strive to help those I support have meaningful relationships and connections in both their home and communities"